and public schools.*

NASHVILLE PUBLIC EDUCATION FOUNDATION PUBLIC SCHOOLS HALL OF FAME

By sponsoring the Public Schools Hall of Fame, you will showcase to hundreds of Nashvillians that your business cares about thriving public schools.

The Nashville Public Education Foundation believes teachers and school leaders are best positioned to create change in our schools. We believe we must make sure our teachers and leaders have what they need to help students succeed. And we believe it's up to all of us to ensure our students are thriving in our schools every day.

AWARD DESCRIPTIONS

Nelson C. Andrews Distinguished Service Award

The Nelson C. Andrews Distinguished Service Award is given to a leader in the Nashville community who embodies the pinnacle of commitment and service to improving the lives of other Nashvillians. The award is named after the late co-founder of the Nashville Public Education Foundation, Nelson C. Andrews, who as a fierce advocate for Nashville's public schools.

Distinguished Alumni Award

The Public Schools Hall of Fame Distinguished Alumni Award is a celebration of the best and brightest graduates of Metro Nashville Public schools who are committed to public education, have displayed leadership in their respective professions, have made significant business, political, or civic contributions, and have positively impacted the lives of others.

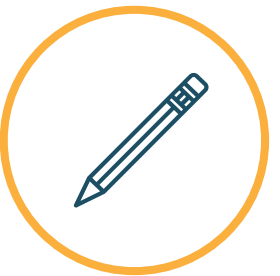

Thomas J. Sherrard Inspiring Innovation Award

presented by

The Thomas J. Sherrard Inspiring Innovation Award is given to a school or program that exemplifies NPEF's commitment to bringing bold, innovative, strategies to make a difference for our public schools. These are bright spots in our community - people doing work to move the needle and find success for our students. The winner also receives a $10,000 grant.

Annette S. Eskind Inspiring Educator Award

presented by

The Annette S. Eskind Inspiring Educator Award is given to an MNPS teacher or teacher team with innovative practices or ideas that inspire students of all backgrounds to fall in love with learning while achieving academic success. The award provides a grant of $10,000 to support the winner's innovative practices, and then they reach more students in need.
